

How Many

Sevyn Streeter

He keep telling me, "Baby, don't cry"
He keep telling me, "Baby, don't cry"
I just caught you in a whole lie
How the fuck you come, telling me, "Baby, don't cry"?

How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?

Must be heard to leave your girl left to die
Oh, is this part of that new wave that you lame as fuck whenever you try?
When this shit first started, you would ask me
Why was I so afraid to let you inside?
I fell for that shit, maybe your heart's been too hard for too long
Now maybe its time

I'm so fucking left field
Tears in my eyes, I'm going through your whole phone
Fuck you ask me, "Why?"
Nigga, need your head blown

He keep telling me, "Baby, don't cry"
He keep telling me, "Baby, don't cry"
I just caught you in a whole lie
How the fuck you come, telling me, "Baby, don't cry"?

How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?

Now I've been unfortunately forced to draw the line
You got me all in this mirror, trying to hold all this flame and I know it's not mine
And all you got to say is "It ain't mean nothing"
That's how you justify your hoes?
And even if I choose to forgive, it won't be the same as before

I'm so fucking left field
Tears in my eyes, I'm going through your whole phone
Fuck you ask me, "Why?"
Nigga, need your head blown

He keep telling me, "Baby, don't cry"
He keep telling me, "Baby, don't cry"
I just caught you in a whole lie
How the fuck you come, telling me, "Baby, don't cry"?

How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?
How many bitches are you telling you love 'em?
How many women are you telling you love 'em?
