

Turn Away

Shaaman

You put yourself in fire
Turn to someone else
Your well is dry, you that cry out
Searching for more success
Left your thoughts in darkness
One day they'll return
Some other guide
Our lesson would be good to learn
Don't get it down on me
Don't ever Turn Away!

Break through your barriers
Sharpened, diamond cut
Again you're trapped in lies
Or simply misunderstood?

Step me what you need now
To be that someone else
Is that another desire?
It will be your last?

Leave me alone
Seeds now are raised and grown
Guide me today
