

Malicious Winds

Shade Empire

This coldness goes straight to the bones
It is not from this world
It is not normal...
As if the entire planet was just waiting
For something to appear
From the bottomless darkness
Something to devour the remains of
Your solar system

The sky howls in a way
That there is no peace
During these starless nights
Only the eyes of the nocturne
Can be seen
They will hunt you down
One by one

He will arrive beyond space and time

Malicious winds
Carry my flesh
with your wings
To face the destroyer of worlds
Malicious winds
Show me how it all ends

From beyond space and time
He is coming
From the bottomless darkness
He will arrive
The traveler!
