

Traveler of Unlight

Shade Empire

Traveler of unlight
Tremble the cosmic order
Unleash the black beast
To the halls of golden temple
Bloom in rays of black Sun

From within the void
And from void within Summon the starless skies

Hear the call of a dying race
Combine my voice
To your black stream of the dead
As I join without a second thought
The knowledge through aeons
Pierce my spine

Traveler of unlight
Tremble the cosmic order
Unleash the black beast
To the halls of golden temple
Bloom in rays of black Sun

My dreams of Saturn now come alive
As my flesh melts from my bones
This calming blackness...
At last my thoughts are clear
Towards the gateway
I travel beyond the veil of cosmos
Into chaos

I abandon this weak flesh
To set my will free

Traveler of unlight
Tremble the cosmic order
Unleash the black beast
To the halls of golden temple
Bloom in rays of black Sun
