

Whisper From The Depths

Shade Empire

The depths are calling
Dark waters whisper
tempting to fall beneath
Where no light shimmers

Beneath the surface
those sunken eyes stare at to the sky
The broken star shines brighter than the others now it's time.
The final breath, cold water, fills the tired lungs.
Dark veil embraces, your path here is done

Sink in cold womb
You are at the gates of your destiny
Drive away sickness
Drive away death

Beneath the surface
The final breath
Beneath the surface
The final breath

The depths are calling
Dark waters whisper
tempting to fall beneath
Where no light shimmers
Where no light shimmers

Sink in cold womb
You are at the gates of your destiny
Forget yourself and find greater connection
Drive away sickness
Drive away death
Beneath the surface
The final breath
The final breath
