

Beat By Beat

Shades Apart

Riding a wave of summer air
Girl with the Technicolor hair
Pure overkill
Zero to sixty, standing still

Nothing can ever slow her down
Breaking the speed of sound
She doesn't care
As long as the music's everywhere

She says, break it down, beat by beat, right or wrong
I'm breaking out, beat by beat
She says, break it down, beat by beat, right or wrong
I'm breaking out, beat by beat, beat by beat

Together we're off, on the run
Racing the hottest August sun
Crank the radio
This is the only way to go

I have seen hell and hurricane
Some things are never gonna change
Turn it up to ten
I need to hear that song again

She says, break it down, beat by beat, right or wrong
I'm breaking out, beat by beat
She says, break it down, beat by beat, right or wrong
I'm breaking out, beat by beat, beat by beat
Beat by beat, beat by beat, yeah

She says, break it down, beat by beat, right or wrong
I'm breaking out, beat by beat
She says, break it down, beat by beat, my baby's song
I'm breaking out, beat by beat, beat by beat
Beat by beat, beat by beat
