Hiding Place

Shades Apart

Go to sleep, turn out the light
In dreams we'll meet tonight
Always you're in my mind
You whisper and I smile
How can you remember so perfectly
When I forget myself
You say you're still mine and I believe
I know you'd give up anything
If there was anything
We're together in our dreams tonight
Just like always I'll be at your side
Maybe someday we'll go back in time
Make a promise now to think of me
I was lost without a trace
You found my hiding place
I'm crawling through a maze
Still falling through a haze
We race against the second hand
Against the falling sand
I would carry you back home with me
If I could just begin again
