

Here And There

Shadow Project

You've got you blind fold on just right
I'm digging graves for you know who
And this one's for you know who
This one's for you
Motion in motion - but only for a time
Your heart is in my hand
You are my heart in hand
Humanity isn't so precious
Be ready to die
You aren't so precious
Just look at that disguise
Moving words from here to there
Pointing your finger in the air
You've got your blind fold on just right so you won't be too scared
Holding on to images
You're hoping they'll be there
But bleeding knees and sweating palms
Are crying for advice
Your bleeding knees and sweating palms
They're crying for advice
Climbing walls of "I don't care"
Avoiding fear so you'll forget
Humanity isn't so precious
Be ready to die
You aren't so precious
Just look at that disguise
Here and there, here and there
