Shai

This relationship is going nowhere
And now it's time that I voice my thoughts to you
Is a piece on my mind that I want to share
About lately all the changes that we go through
See you've been causing problems in my world, baby
With all of your insecurities and things
If you were more comforting about being my girl baby
Cause I'm shouting it out we can have a little time from pain C

I don't wanna play your games
Cause I'd be acting just like you
I don't wanna play your games
And that's not what I wanna do

When we go out why do the things you do
See your jealous games, they just don't agree with me baby
Just behaving, it makes you look like a fool Attitude, just bec

These silly games girl, I might not want you back
It ain't that serious cause girl I ain't all that 'pressed

Cause I'd be acting just like you

And that's not what I wanna do
