

Mr. Turn U Out

Shai

Have you ever just wanted to love him
That you never had to answer to
No headaches, no heartaches no broken promises
Someone who could just get you on and leave
And not take your emotions with him
See uh, I'm that man
But I'm not real, I'm just a fantasy
Hrm, remember me

I was in your dream last night
But you don't know my name
All you know is I did it and it felt just right
So maybe that's our destiny
In this world that's so insane
We hit each other off by candlelight

I'm not even real
Just a figment of imagination
No, never cause an aggravation
No more jealousy, dishonesty
It's purely ecstasy, laying next to me

They call me Mr. Turn U Out
Remember me, the one from your fantasy
I'm here to turn u out
In privacy, keep me a secret from society
I'm Mr. Turn U Out
Remember me, the one from your fantasy
I'm here to turn u out
Exclusively, experimental monogomy

I can make your body scream
If you know what I mean
I can create passion with my eyes
I can make your waters flow
With just a simple tease
For you I always save a special surprise

I'm not even real
Just a figment of imagination
No, never cause an aggravation
No more jealousy, dishonesty
It's purely ecstasy, laying next to me

They call me Mr. Turn U Out
Remember me, the one from your fantasy
I'm here to turn u out
In privacy, keep me a secret from society
I'm Mr. Turn U Out
Remember me, the one from your fantasy
I'm here to turn u out
Exclusively, experimental monogomy

Everything you've ever dreamed of Anything your mind can conceive love
All your dreams of satisfaction
I'm right here in your imagination

I'm here to turn you out, through all.

I was in your dream last night
But you don't know my name
So maybe that's our destiny
In a world that's so insane
I can make your body scream
If you know what I mean
