

Brunette Localicious

Shaka Ponk

Once upon a time I had a man
Once upon a boring night I was single again
Some might say I'm a supa picky girl
From another world, but I found my pearl

You got me rising like a star
Ya make my day
I like who you are
You changed my vision from all of the sudden
I'd pick a guy like you for everyone

So loopylicious
You're sweet and vicious
You make me feel feel feel lika real killa brunette localicious

Tiny losers begin' on their knees
Trying to be sexy, crying "baby baby please..."
Another melo-manic point of view
Baby I've got through 'cauz I found you

So karmalicious
You're sweet and vicious
You make me feel feel feel mighty real real real

Hey donchaknow
I don't like the boy with the flowers, I don't like the boring
café
I'm not into romantic lovers, I wish every girl knew you baby

Hey donchaknow
I like ta play

Come closer now
Come closer and kick me again and again
