

If I Lose You

Shakin' Stevens

If I lose you
Will I cry
Will I live, or baby will I die
I guess I'll have to try
And get along, without you

And if I call you
On the phone
Will you answer baby?
Will you please come on home now
Or will I have to try, and get along without you

I'll be lonesome
I'll be blue
I'll be crying, thinking of you
Wondering wondering baby, if you found
Somebody else to hang around, now
If I call you on the phone
Will you answer baby?
Will you please come on home now
Or will I have to try, and get along without you, yeahhhh

I'll be lonesome
I'll be blue
I'll be crying, thinking of you
Wondering wondering baby, if you found
Somebody else to hang around, now

If I lose you
Will I cry
Will I live, or baby will I die
I guess I'll have to try
And get along, without you
wow wow yeah
I'll guess I'll have to try
And get alooong, without you
wow wow yeah
I'll try no I'll try, to get alooong without you
