

Nobody

Shakin' Stevens

Who taught the birds to sing in the trees?
Nobody.
Who taught the flowers to dance in the breeze?
Nobody.
Just like a sea washing on the sand.
I just naturally take your hand.
I wanna be your loving man.
Who can love you like this man can?
Nobody.

Who got the bees to gather in honey child?
Nobody.
Who taught the sunny day to be sunny now?
Nobody.
Just like the stars glowin' in the sky.
You got the natural look of love in your eye.
You can't deny there ain't no lie.
Who can love you as good as I?
Nobody.

Who got the girls to walk like they walk yeah?
Nobody.
Who got the girls to talk like they jive yeah?
Nobody.
A natural woman just turns me on.
Just like the sun comes up at dawn.
I want to see you keep on keepin' on.
I don't know why you're gonna be like nobody.
