

Higher Love

Shakra

Now is the time when I have to figure out
Imaginary protection should fill us with pride

You punish the innocent
Your rage is mad
I can hardly have faith in you

I just can't make you out above
Anymore
Where is your so-called higher love?
We need more

Every day I could cover up my eyes
Nothing but cruelty, injustice and evil lies

Born pure, we are spoilt by guilt and grow to waste
And that's supposed to make us feel safe

I just can't make you out above
Anymore
Where is your so-called higher love?
We need more

I just can't make you out above
Anymore
Where is your so-called higher love?
We need more

Why can't you just send a sign of assurance?
If you are so damned almighty, take a glance
We long for a little gesture if there's still a chance

I just can't make you out above
Anymore
Where is your so-called higher love?
We need more
