

The One

Shakra

Just one of these lonely nights
I'm lying on my bed
Sleep seems so far away
My thoughts are in a fight
Get up for a little drink
In may just help a bit
Your smile's burned into my mind
It's written in ink

Could it be that you won't see me?
Could it be that you just play an evil game?

I wanna be the one,
Just be your number one,
I'll swear I'll be the one who cares
I wanna be the one,
Not just another one,
I'll swear I'll be the one who cares

Now I seem to lose my mind,
I'm up to give a call
Don't know if it's wrong or right
But my love makes me blind
I hang up, couldn't say a thing
Seems like I lost my voice
There's so much I would like to say
My Heart is on a string

Could it be that you won't hear me?
Could it be that you just play an evil game?

I wanna be the one,
Just be your number one,
I'll swear I'll be the one who cares
I wanna be the one,
Not Just another one,
I'll swear I'll be the one who cares

Could it be that you won't see me?
Could it be that you just play an evil game?

I wanna be the one,
Just be your number one,
I'll swear I'll be the one who cares
I wanna be the one,
Not just another one,
I'll swear I'll be the one who cares x2
