When The Phone Rings Twice

Our love is a wild game Burning like a hot flame N' when I touch your skin that's my sin 'Cause my family is waitin' for me

Late at night I'm driving home Looking for an alibi Asking myself what I should do When I hear it again

When the Phone rings twice You set my heart on fire When the phone rings twice Our sign of desire

My heart beats faster That's my disaster Like a yo-yo on a string when you ring I come under your control

Once again I'm driving home The door is closed and I'm alone Asking myself what I should do I'm driving back to you

When the Phone rings twice You set my heart on fire When the phone rings twice Our sign of desire When the Phone rings twice...
