

Standing in the alleys keeping out of sight
You know who you are but you won't get far
Living like sheep acting like a fox
You know who you are but you won't get far don't you know

A ppor por you now what you gonna do
You know who you are but you won't get far
Satisfaction from overdose reaction
You know who you are but you won't get far

Run run there's nowhere to hide
Cry cry you shouldn't have lied

You stuffy little man you need a helping hand
You know who you are but you won't get far
Guess who, I'm looking at you
You know who you are but you won't get far
The tears of guilt are imprisoned in your eyes
You're out on your own but you're wanted dead or alive
How can you survive your desire eats your pride
So sooner or later you're gonna have to decide
