Shaman's Harvest

If I, if I were an eagle,
I would carry you on my back,
Across the ocean,
And if I, if I were hardwood,
I would knock three times, for superstition,

Bury my heart at wounded knee,
That is all I am asking,
Bury my heart, yeah I know hard,
Yeah well baby, that is all I am asking, yeah.

If I, if I were king of the forest,
I would spend my life protecting you,
And if, if I were the tin man yeah,
I would shed a tear so you could have water,
And if I am smart, smart as scarecrow,
I would create a world for you to live in perfect harmony,

Bury my heart at wounded knee,
That is all I am asking,
Bury my heart, yeah I know hard,
Yah well baby, that is all I am asking,
Bury my heart at yeah, wounded knee,
Said babe, that is all, that is all, that is all I am asking, yeah

If I, if I were a father,
I would teach you yeah, all that I know,
But if I reach the stars,
Yeah but if I run away,
I'll take you wherever we are,
And there we will forever stay,

Yeah, if I reach the stars,
Yeah but if I run away,
I'll take you where we are,
And there we will forever stay,

If I reach the stars,
And If I run away,
I'll take you wherever we are,
And there we will forever stay,

If I reach the stars,
If I run away,
I'll take you where we are.
