

Soul Crusher

Shaman's Harvest

Soul crusher
You wanna take from me
What no man could take that's why you sought defeat
Heart eater
You want a taste of me
With this heart of stone you just gonna break your teeth
Grave digger
Go on and bury me
I will rise in seven days just enough for you to wash my feet
My believer
You save to ruin me
So I cover my ears all better that I can see

It's buried deeper than a coal mine
There is no hope for any sunshine
Don't cha worry none I'll be alright
Just give me love, give me love, give me love
I'm telling you now that I'm no good
I love you up like I said I would
I'm givin you everything a man could
Don't cha give me love, give me love, give me love

Aww pusher
Don't cha mess around
I'mma keep my feet on the solid ground
Peace keeper, the bully playground
I will raise my fist before you take my crown
Breath taker, don't want to play my sound
Digging into the months that I'm no longer bound
Death reaper, ain't gonna slow down
There'll be one last hour before I run him down

It's buried deeper than a coal mine
Where there is no hope for any sunshine
Don't cha worry none I'll be alright
Just give me love, give me love, give me love
I'm telling you now that I'm no good
I love you up like I said I would
I'm givin you everything a man should
Just give me love, give me love, give me love

It's buried deeper than a coal mine
Where there is no hope for any sunshine
Don't cha worry none I'll be alright
Don't cha give me love, oh give me love now
I'm telling you now that I'm no good
I'll burn you up like I said I would I'm giving you everything a man should
Don't cha give me love, don't give me love now

It's buried deeper than a coal mine
Where there is no hope for any sunshine
Don't cha worry none I'll be alright
Just give me love, give me love, give me love
I'm telling you now that I'm no good
I'll burn you up like you was caught in wood
I've given you everything a man should

Don't cha give me love, give me love, give me love
