

Wait In The Light

Shaman's Harvest

Goodbye cruel world
I'll say so long
Won't wait for another
When it all goes wrong
Fall asleep in the madness
This unbroken dream
We can be a pretender
Escaping the name

So wait, wait in the light
Don't be alone,
Be sure to make an offer
One is for patience and one for the gun
Waiting and wanting has made me unbound

Goodbye salvation
You're no longer home
I will be in the silence
When the angels come
Fall asleep in the madness
This unbroken chain
We can be a pretender
Escaping the name

So wait, wait in the light
Don't be alone,
Be sure to make an offer
One is for patience and one for the gun
Waiting and wanting has made me unbound

Wait
Wait in the light
Don't be alone
Waiting and wanting has made me

This is a sickness
In my head
It's my only weakness
It makes me

Makes me wait, wait in the light
Don't be alone,
Be sure to make an offer
One is for patience and one for the gun
Waiting and wanting has made me

Still waiting
Makes me wait, wait in the light
Don't be alone,
Be sure to make an offer
One is for patience and one for the gun
Waiting and wanting has made me unbound
