Finally Home

Shaman

From where I cam, or where I go All in between I supposed Will live on ! Live on and on !

Ashes to ashes, this nonstop dance What is in between will remain Converging points, drawing away

Life has always been this way Recycling thought what seems to be the end !

Frosted in time by its flow Right between known and unknown (Dancing away) Connected by soul and love Beyond everything in this world (All is subtle) When less is more, where life overcome

Oh, nothing is home Oh, silence will take me

Home ! I've realized where I am ! Where light and darkness are the same

Finally I'm home Finally I found where I am ! Where eyes can't draw or interpret
