

The Yellow Brick Road

Shaman

Solitary night with the stars
Alone with my thoughts
Moments and flashes of my life
Some great, some ok
And they all show me who I am...

Looking for words to describe
How proud I've become
All that was lost, I let go
Real peace lies within
And there's nothing more for me to wish...

Oh!
Follow the yellow brick road
Then you'll find
All of those things you ever wanted
And more...
Follow the yellow brick road
Love can bring to you...

Everything
In this world
All is connected by life
And you know life is love!

Now
Here we are
All that we need to do
Is to never give up
These wounds just make you stronger
Life is pain, but also love, oh!

Oh!
Follow the yellow brick road
Then you'll find
All of those things you ever wanted
And more...
Follow the yellow brick road
Then you'll find
Everything in life!
