

Sound Asleep

Shamrain

while whole world was asleep
you stayed awake
to sing a lullaby
for us all

everything changed
in a trice
the breaking dawn turned back into night

quiet is the air now
had stopped breathing
quiet is the world now
had stopped feeling

and pale white
snow came down
