

No Time

Shanell

I really didn't wanna say this
But y'all niggas be on that bullshit
Hyping all these fake bitches
When you really want you a real chick

And you wonder why she can't be loyal
'Cause she ain't the one that you should spoil
So go ahead, blame yourself
And no more real chicks, leave these fuck boys on the shelf

Let them chase money, cars, and homes on their own
Let them keep on wondering why we won't come home

'Cause we ain't got time for that
Only miss a good thing when it's gone
If you take him back, keep him
If he knows where he was wrong till then
Let them figure this thing out on their own

Now he's always talking about his niggas
Like fuck these girls, I love my niggas
Now what I'm supposed to think or say
Especially when most of them be going both ways

So what's a girl supposed to wanna come home to?
When he acts like a woman he's not into
About to risk my health
Since these niggas is pussy tell 'em go and fuck themselves

Let them chase money, cars, and homes on their own
Let them keep on wondering why we won't come home

'Cause we ain't got time for that
Only miss a good thing when it's gone
If you take him back, keep him
If he knows where he was wrong till then
Let them figure this thing out on their own

All I really wanted was the respect
Didn't wanna feel like a reject
I got way too many niggas on my line
For that BS, that BS
I had to go through shit time after time
Putting shit together like a mastermind
You stepped up so I stepped on
No...feel slipped on
Left the house but I kept the stones
Number changed but I kept the phone
Just know that I still fly private
Still cool on my pilot
Know if you ever got in trouble
I be there on the double
Know we can never be a couple
But the true fact is deep down still love you
Goddamn

Let them chase money, cars, and homes on their own

Let them keep on wondering why we won't come home

'Cause we ain't got time for that
Only miss a good thing when it's gone
If you take him back, keep him
If he knows where he was wrong till then
Let them figure this thing out on their own
