

None Tonight

Shanell

Aye boy
You been playing these games too long
Check it out I can play it too

I know boy that your home
I see your room with the light on
But you wanna act like your gone
And I ain't worth answering the phone
My intuition ain't wrong
It's like you trying lead me on
This been going on for too long

So you ain't getting none tonight
None tonight
None tonight
None tonight
You ain't getting none tonight
None tonight
None tonight
None tonight

Aye I know what your about to say
Ya phone was chriping all day
And baby don't ya act that way
Now I wanna see you try to explain
Why you paid dinner for two
But then said it was only you
Oh now I must look like a fool
That's cool if this is what you wanna do
But now I'll make the game fair
The sofa bed is over there
And put back on your under wear

Cause I swear you ain't getting none
None tonight
None tonight
None tonight
You ain't getting none tonight
None tonight
None tonight
None tonight

Boy you gonna sleep here all alone tonight
Cause I got my double A batteries
For my remote control version of you
And it sounds like (tongue rolling noise)
You ain't getting none getting none
You ain't getting none getting none
You ain't getting none getting none
You ain't getting none getting none
You ain't getting none tonight
None tonight
None tonight
None tonight
You ain't getting none tonight
None tonight
None tonight

None tonight
