

Substitute Lover

Shanell

Somehow he changes, somehow I broke his heart
We had arranged, he come in and play his part,
But he wanted something more between us, something I just could not do

Cause I left my heart with someone that I been tryna hold onto

So I guess he was my part time sometime meantime in between time

But I guess I wasted his time cause hes leaving me

He was my substitute lova, my substitute love

He was my substitute lova, he don't love me no more

He was my substitute sometimes lova, my substitute sometimes love, my substitute lova

He don't love me no more

He gave me everything a girl could ask

But he couldn't stick around while I gave someone else a second chance

He said I only called when I need him, to act like I was in love

But when he looked inside my heart was empty and he said he had enough
