

You Need A Man

Shanice

He's sittin' right across from me, you're lookin' over casually
So I'm pretendin' not to see, you're tryin' to get his attention
So I decided to keep my cool, don't wanna cause a scene
But you're out here on a mission to be in my position

Girl, I know you need a man, I could never understand
Why would you play yourself makin' it easier for any man
To wanna take you home, make him wanna do me wrong
But he's not leavin' me, you need to forget it go and find yourself a man

Tell me you why'd you wanna be the one he'd have to creep to see
You know that he's here with me, so tell me what's your intention
I've never been the jealous type and I won't be the fool tonight
I don't wanna have to act unladylike, oh

Girl I know you need a man, I could never understand
Why would you play yourself makin' it easier for any man
To wanna take you home, make him wanna do me wrong
But he's not leavin' me you, need to forget it go and find yourself a man

I know [Incomprehensible] you to see
Any man you take, can be taken from you
Is that the place you wanna be?
Any hearts you break, your heart can be broken too
Now tell me how would you feel? If you were in my shoes
And I got to do that to you

Girl I know you need a man, I could never understand
Why would you play yourself makin' it easier for any man
To wanna take you home, make him wanna do me wrong
But he's not leavin' me, you need to forget it go and find yourself a man

I know you need a man, I could never understand
Why would you play yourself makin' it easier for any man
To wanna take you home, make him wanna do me wrong
But he's not leavin' me you need to forget it go and find yourself a man

I know you need a man, I could never understand
Why would you play yourself makin' it easier for any man
To wanna take you home, make him wanna do me wrong
But he's not leavin' me you, need to forget it go and find yourself a man

I know you need a man, I could never understand
Why would you play yourself makin' it easier for any man
To wanna take you home, make him wanna do me wrong
But he's not leavin' me, you need to forget it go and find yourself a man

I know you need a man, I could never understand
Why would you play yourself makin' it easier for any man
To wanna take you home, make him wanna do me wrong
But he's not leavin' me
