

Million Ways

Shawn Hook

I'd sell my soul for a slice of heaven tonight
My mind is shot cause all I've got is you in my sight

Girl you're like a pearl on the bottom of the ocean
waiting to be found
All you needed was somebody who could see you who wasn't scared to dive down

I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I need time for every part of you
I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I ain't giving up, giving up, giving up tonight

I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I need time for every part of you
I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I ain't giving up, giving up, giving up tonight
I ain't giving up, giving up, giving up tonight

I know people talk they can say the craziest things Believe when I say the truth is written on my skin

Girl you're like a pearl on the bottom of the ocean
waiting to be found
who wasn't scared to dive down

I need time for every part of you
I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I ain't giving up, giving up, giving up tonight

I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I need time for every part of you
I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I ain't giving up, giving up, giving up tonight

I'm gonna find a million ways
I'm gonna find a million ways
I'm gonna find a million ways
I'm gonna find a million ways

I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I need time for every part of you
I'm gonna find a million ways to love you
I ain't giving up, giving up, giving up tonight
