

Rainbow

Shawn Hook

Busy streets, crowded rooms
Waiting lines, words to use
Everyone is see through
Lonely nights and broken dreams
Left behind, or so it seemed
How did I ever find you?

I gave up on chasing love
I swept it underneath the rug
Then I met you
And everything felt new

When the rain dies down
And the sun's on the rise
I'll be looking up at you
You'll be my rainbow in the sky
When the clouds fall asleep
And the sun's on the rise
I'll be looking up at you
You'll be my rainbow in the sky

Everything happens for Reasons that we can't ignore
All the signs are around us

Call it luck or call it fate
I know this much is no mistake
You and I
We were meant to fly

When the rain dies down
And the sun's on the rise
I'll be looking up at you
You'll be my rainbow in the sky
When the clouds fall asleep
And the sun's on the rise
I'll be looking up at you
You'll be my rainbow in the sky

We're are one of a kind together
Doing whatever we like whenever
We can hold the weight of the world

When the rain dies down
And the sun's on the rise
I'll be looking up at you
You'll be my rainbow in the sky
When the clouds fall asleep
And the sun's on the rise
I'll be looking up at you
You'll be my rainbow in the sky
