

Who Do You Love

Shawn Hook

Pull out your lipstick
Biting your eye lids
Swinging your hips
Licking your lips
Falling out of your trips

Your attractive sex
Innocent columns
That buy on the bottoms
Filling your cup
Winding it up
Saying you're the best
But picking up the chip

They say you're only there to dance
But you're dancing on his lap
So I've gotta know

Who, who do you love?
Who, who do you bang?
Who, who is taking over, stuck inside your brain?
Who, who do you love?
Who, who is your flame?
Who, who is taking over, buying your cocaine?

You walk on a tired road
I'm keeping my eyes closed
Clenching my fist
Watching your lips
Sucking on his tongue
Wait until you come

'Till reality
You're poisoning my fantasies
Playing the game
Hiding your shame
Trying to keep your cool
Am I still your fool?

They say you're only there to dance
But you're dancing on his lap
Yeah, I've got to know

Who, who do you love?
Who, who do you bang?
Who, who is taking over, stuck inside your brain?
Who, who do you love?
Who, who is your flame?
Who, who is taking over, buying your cocaine?

Your words, as sweet as sin
But you know I seen it all
Yeah, I know where you've been
Baby, up against the wall

So I've gotta know

Who, who do you love?
Who, who do you bang?
Who, who is taking over, stuck inside your brain?
Who, who do you love?
Who, who is your flame?
Who, who is taking over, buying your cocaine?

(Who, who do you love?)
(Who, who do you love?)
