

Shame

SHeDAISY

Shame, shame, shame, shoulda let it go too far
Shame, shame, shame, should've opened up my heart

Well, there you go in the wrong direction
Here I am right, where I've always been
Typical, I'm missing my connection again, again

Shame, shame, shame, shoulda let it go too far
Shame, shame, shame, should've opened up my heart
Yeah, you were right within my reach, something
Any other fool could see, shame, shame, shame on me

I found my nerve, guess where it was hiding
Crumpled up underneath the kitchen sink
A little late, I didn't read the writing
I read a romance novel instead
Now, I can't get you out of my head, oh no, no

Shame, shame, shame, shoulda let it go too far
Shame, shame, shame, should've opened up my heart
Yeah, you were right within my reach, something
Any other fool could see, shame, shame, shame on me

Your lips, your fingertips, your sun-kissed hair
I see the pieces of you everywhere, you're everywhere

Shame, shame, shame, should've let it go too far
Shame, shame, shame, shoulda let it go too far
Shame, shame, shame, I should've opened up my heart
Yeah, you were right within my reach, something
Any other fool could see, shame, shame, shame on me

Should've let it go too far, shame, shame, shame
Should've let it go too far, oh shame, shame, shame
