

Walk Witt Me

Sheek Louch

I'm tired of crying tired of livin i'm tired of niggaz i'm tired of women i just wanna be myself keep the fame keep the Wealth gimme my health take me to a place where they aint hatin no more where i aint gotta rase the hand and clap the four Where i dont gotta kick your door and ask for more where i dont gotta dig ya floor and look for raw whoa where i dont gotta Serve no heads cook no coke and no such thing as FEDS and there 's no such thing as AIDS and lil kids live the age to walk The stage no lil babies cryin mom aint dyin papa live at home h e gotta steady job everybody full he aint gotta rob

Damn

Walk wit me talk wit me

Sometimes i just sit and think

You know it's hard to express it ya'll

Thats why i put it all in ink

Where we aint black or white matter fact we are but we dont have to fight or kill maybe Malcolm would have been alive still Maybe Martin would have been able to chill maybe a black face on a dollar bill i keep hope alive that i stay alive i think It's coming i'm trying not to drink and drive a place where the death penalty is gone no abortions life only lives on nobody Gettin shot for they chains and no hard labor jobs we all usin our brains and you dont have to strip through school cover ya Body mama everything is cool let your daughter know her moms is smart and thats your heart before you tare her apart "i think i'm asking for too much man"

Damn

Walk wit me talk wit me

Sometimes i just sit and think

You know it's hard to express it ya'll

No muradhs on the five o'clock news no bodys over Jordan tenna-shoes nobody laying on me waitin to blast i feel the spirts Of my niggas that past it's like they right here i just cant see um sometimes i'm jealous of um damn i wanna be um everybody Fake when will this ever end if you dont know your enemy then you dont know your friend a place where theres no more wars no More tears no more liquor no more beers no more stocks no more shares no more fights no more jails no more kits a place Where you dont value money just the air you breathe and everyday is sunny no it can never happen and it's just rapin and i'm Dreamin but damn

Walk wit me talk wit me

Sometimes i just sit and think

You know it's hard to express it ya'll

Thats why i put it all in ink
Walk wit me talk wit me
Sometimes i just sit and think
You knwo it's hard to express it ya'll
Thats why i put it all in ink
Thats why i put it all in ink
Thats why i put it all in ink
