

(She's In Love) With Her Radio

Sheena Easton

She don't need nobody with what she's got
She only gets her kicks from 50,000 watts
She keeps em in her bedroom, and the D.J. gets her static
For when a boyfriend picks her up, its never automatic

She says no no no no no no no, she says no no no no no no no
She says no no no no no no no
She's in love, she's in love, she's in love with her radio

When her favorite song comes on, ooh its gonna make her smile
And if you wanna go on with her, don't you dare to touch that d ial

She says no no no no no no no, she says no no no no no no no
She says no no no no no no no, she says no no no no no no no
She says no no no no no no no no no no no no no no
She's in love, she's in love, she's in love
She's in love, she's in love, she's in love, she's in love
She's in love, she's in love, she's in love with her radio
