

To Anyone

Sheena Easton

Broken, just another heart
Another dream fallen from heaven
Everybody's got to cry
Sometime but nobody wants to

I know, I'm not alone
That other loves have fallen from heaven
I know, the world goes on
The sun will shine with or without you

Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm crying
Anyone who's ever cared
Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm trying
To bring back the love we shared

My heart takes another beat
Makes another wish filled with desire
Everybody's got to hope
Sometime, that love lifts us higher

I hope when you're alone
You think of me and somehow you're listening
I pray, you will one day come running back
To the love you've been missing

Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm crying
Anyone who's ever cared
Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm trying
To bring back the love we shared

Day after day as my blues turn to gray
As my heart gives way I surrender

Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm crying
Anyone who's ever cared
Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm trying
To bring back the love we shared

Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm crying
Anyone who's ever cared
Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm trying
To bring back the love we shared

Anyone who's ever been in love
Knows why I'm crying
Anyone who's ever cared
Anyone who's ever been in love
