

You Make Me Nervous

Sheena Easton

A mixed emotion, a state of mind, infatuation of a different kind Hesitation's holding me back from you, fascination's drawing me near There's a strange reaction caught between attraction and fear, oh oh

You make me nervous, making me nervous
You make me nervous, I wanna hold you but I'm scared I lose control
You make me nervous, making me nervous
You make me nervous, what you're gonna say or what I'll do I never know

Anticipating your every move, my nervous breakdown is up to you Doesn't take a psychoanalyst's mind to see
Just what it is that's keeping me here
There's a strange reaction caught between attraction and fear,
oh oh

You make me nervous, making me nervous
You make me nervous, I wanna hold you but I'm scared I lose control
You make me nervous, making me nervous
You make me nervous, what you're gonna say or what I'll do I never know

You make me nervous, making me nervous
You make me nervous, I wanna hold you but I'm scared I lose control
You make me nervous, making me nervous
You make me nervous, what you're gonna say or what I'll do I never know
