

He flies, as a crow flies, straight to her...

Why?

To tell her something...

He promises her he will not do

All the things he has already done to her.

She flies, as a crow flies, straight to him...

Why?

To listen...

Time flies, as a crow flies, in a straight line,

Through you, not around you -

Your life is only that with which TIME has it's way with you.

(the rest of the song - bob weston's vocals and the chorus -

I do not know) *Brandon Matuja
