

I'm Not a Whore

Sheppard

I, I'm tired of your bitchin'
And I-E-I-E-I, I'm sick of your whinging.
You've bitten more than you can chew and you should know I'm the devils food.

Please try to forget me!
Cause I-E-I-E-I, I'm happy as can be
You complain more than I can stand
So grow some BALLS and be a man!

I'm not a whore, I just got over you
Now I'm hoping that you will too
Ain't it a shame
You've only got yourself to blame.
So if you want a fight
tell another lie
I'll never forfeit my pride

Now, everything is splendid
I wake up feeling fresh
My life has amended
So understand - I'm not coming back.
I'm gonna find someone with the things you lack.

I'm glad you make a mistake
Before I did and stayed with you
And now you're making waves
Because you're sad and lonely, and hopeless too!
We were broken from the start, so you never broke my heart
And you always made me cry, I was never satisfied
So find another fish, there are plenty in the sea
You can fool them all you want with your sly trickery, OH!
