

Remind Me

Sherrié Austin

See our picture on the wall
Why were we smiling, I just can't seem to recall
Remind me
Do you see this wedding band
Wasn't it once worth more than just gold on my hand
Remind me.

I don't care who's right or wrong
But my memory of love is almost gone
Won't you take me in your arms
And remind me
You criticize and accuse
Oh, but honey you've had amnesia too
Kiss me like you used to do
And remind me.

It's a short walk to that door
But didn't we have something good
That's still worth fighting for
Remind me.

I don't care who's right or wrong
But my memory of love is almost gone
Won't you take me in your arms
And remind me
You criticize and accuse
Oh, but honey you've had amnesia too
Kiss me like you used to do
And remind me.

How did we end up this way
Me against you
In love one is never to blame
It always takes two
Do you remember, my dear
The first time we made love, come over here
And let me remind you...
