

I Shall Believe

Sheryl Crow

1. Come to me now
And leave your hands over me
Even if it's a lie,
say it will be alright
And I shall believe

  2. Broken in two
I know you are on to me
That I only come home
When I'm so all alone
But I do believe

  3. Open the door
And show me your face tonight
I know it's true
No one heals me like you
And you hold the key

  4. Never again
Would I turn away from you
I'm so heavy tonight
But your love is alright
And I do believe
- R: That's not everything is gonna be the way I think it ought to be
It seems like everytime I try to make it all comes down on me
Please say honestly you won't give up on me
And I shall believe
And I shall believe
