Prove You Wrong

Sheryl Crow

It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong I got my mind made up and my high heels on It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong

You said if you left I'd be laid up in a bed of tears I'd be going crazy 'cause without you baby I'd be sad and lonely 'round here

It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong I got my mind made up, got my high heels on It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong, no It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong

I know you've told our friends I won't find another man like you But no one's gonna hold me, no one's gonna love me Nothin' like the way do

It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong I got my mind made up and my high heels on It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong, no It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong

Yeah You've been too busy talking To even see me walking

It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much It wouldn't take much, yeah It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much It wouldn't take much

It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong I got my mind made up and my high heels on It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong, no It wouldn't take much to prove you wrong

It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much It wouldn't take much Oh no, it wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much It wouldn't take much

And I will prove you wrong, baby (It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much) (It wouldn't take much, yeah) I got my high heels on, baby (It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much) And I will prove you wrong (It wouldn't take much) I got my high heels on now, baby (It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much) (It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much) No no, it wouldn't take much (It wouldn't take much, it wouldn't take much) (It wouldn't take much) No no no...
