

Sad Sad World

Sheryl Crow

I know you hate me I see that now
If I was unhappy I'd be someone you could still care about
I think it's stupid and sad
That everything turn out of bad
And enemies make the most interesting friends

I'm gonna write you a long letter
I'm gonna get you on the telephone
Three little words to make it all better
Maybe I'll leave this whole thing alone

R: It's a sad sad world without you in it
And I'm a bad bad girl for letting you down
And I remember every crazy minute
It's a sad sad world without you around

We're too much alike for our own good
We both hate fighting no matter how misunderstood
I want to tell you that you're stubborn
I want to tell you I never lied
I want to tell you that your friends talk way too much
I want to know what happened to that friend of mine
