

Try Not To Remember

Sheryl Crow

1. What still remains
Something unrelenting
I'll say the names
Of those I've left behind

R: In the still of the night
Do you laugh, do you cry
Do you try not to remember?

If it's a question of fate
Do you love, do you hate
Do you try not to remember?

2. I see your eyes
And my own reflection
These broken skies
Again began to melt

3. We are the same
Fighting for something
What's left to gain
When there's no means to an end

R: In the still... (2x)

Try not to remember. . .
