

Just A Shadow

Shihad

Living it up inside a cloud of isolation with all the people tryin' to be somebody else (cut apart) an extra generation (cut apart) forget yourself

Stand up, stand up, stand up fuck yeah
light up, light up, light up fuck yeah
sitting in line, but you're all in your mind you're too cool to touch

There's something inside you where nobody goes and there's something about you that I used to know and if the sun is still shining you'd never tell, you're just a shadow

Tied up in knots, lying tangled from the ceiling with all the people wishing I was somewhere else (looking good) don't know what I'm feeling (looking good) it's time to sell

When they get up, get up (fuck yeah)
when they light up, light up (fuck yeah)

Setting the time trying to get you alive I can't seem to touch

There's something inside you
where nobody goes and
there's something about you
that I used to know
and if your sun is still shining you better tell, you're just a shadow of somebody else, you're just a shadow

(let it go)
get up, get up, get up (let it go)
stand up, stand up, stand up

where nobody goes and
there's something about you
that I used to know
you better tell, you're just a shadow of somebody else, just a shadow
