We could choose to disregard it or have some fun and break it since god has just departed we could carry on or fake it who has a better plan whats the true nature of man whats money to your soul watch as money takes control

And is there space for every boy and girl in a competitive, material world I guess we'll have to wait and see and I'm trying too hard too believe

Know when to draw the line know there's a grand design know there's a better way I don't know and cannot say when my respect for man has taken all it can the purchase of your soul placate and we have lost control (2x)

Is it daddy's little boys and girls become the acne on the face of the world I guess we'll have to wait and see and I'm trying too hard too believe

We could choose to disregard it (2x) who has a better plan whats the true nature of man whats money to your soul watch as money takes control

Is it daddy's little boys and girls become the acne on the face of the world I guess we'll have to wait and see And is there space for every boy and girl in a competitive, material world I guess we'll have to wait and see and I'm trying too hard too believe