You Again

Shihad

I hope I never see you again
I hope I never touch you again
Sometimes I wonder, what's fucked in my heart
Won't let your fingers tear us apart

It's all so simple, it's all over again
A lack of talent is caving you in
Sometimes I wonder what's fucked in your heart
We're losing grip now, now we're falling apart

The speaker speaks but the words sound haunted So much it's falling out of your hands Could you ever tell?

And it's there for me, there to see And it's in full view Why did I waste my time on you?
