

Goodbye, You Suck

Shiloh

You're like a guy on the phone in his Lamborghini
Talking with the man While his wife's on the other line
He will never say that he really really truly loves her
He just doesn't have time
You're like a friend that was more like an enemy
An evil smile that'll get you anything you need
No one really ever knows the truth
They just don't have time

There's only so much of this that I'm gonna take
You're wasting all my time

Goodbye, you suck
Never really liked you
No more what's up
'Cause I don't care anymore
Goodbye, you suck
Said I never liked you
So long, good luck
Goodbye, you suck

You like the bully in the high school down the street
Living with the pain that is so damn hard to beat
She will never say she's really really truly sorry
She will never shine
You're like the phone call that I always seem to get
Twenty times a day just convincing me to place a bet
But I'm not gonna answer, said I'm not gonna answer

There's only so much of this that I'm gonna take
You're wasting all my time

Goodbye, you suck
Never really liked you
No more what's up
'Cause I don't care anymore
Goodbye, you suck
Said I never liked you
So long, good luck
Goodbye, you suck

Yah, yah, yah, yah [repeat]

You were so over-rated anyway
Way too perfect for my taste
I wish I could've seen this long ago
The happy ending seeing you alone

There's only so much of this that I'm gonna take
You're wasting all my time

Goodbye, you suck
Never really liked you
No more what's up
'Cause I don't care anymore
Goodbye, you suck
Said I never liked you

So long, good luck
Goodbye, you suck
