

Black Soul

Shinedown

Who's the victim now?
Stand up and take a bow, a bow
Face everyone you disrespect
So who's the asshole now?
Holier-than-thou, you're not 'Cause baby's got a black soul
Got a black soul
Got a black soul

You made a mess of your life
And you've been burned once or twice
Now you play roulette with a watergun

Wake up
Pull yourself together
Speak up
'Cause no one heard your name
Erupt
It's better late than never
And it might take forever
To put you back together

Face everyone you disrespect

Now they're on their feet
To watch you double down hard and take it too far
And you know you're in too deep
'Cause you're runnin' out of time and you're talkin' in your sleep
Baby's got a black soul
Baby's got no control
Baby's got a black soul,
got a black soul
Got a black soul

You made a mess of your life
And you've been buried alive
Now you play roulette with a watergun

Wake up
Pull yourself together
Speak up
'Cause no one heard your name
Erupt
It's better late than never
And it might take forever
To put you back together

Ohhh, ohhh
Wake up
Pull yourself together
Speak up
Erupt
It's better late than never
And if I take forever...

Wake up
Speak up
Erupt
And if I take forever
