

Opinions are biased, shut up and be quiet
I'm tryin' to make you understand
This is what you're up against
Powerful, powerless, leavin' with the upset
Here to stay, by the way, I turned it around
In a room full of mirrors, I figured it out

I had to take leave of my senses
To draw my own conclusion
Had to swing for the fences
To find my own solution
In a world gone mad, it's all so sad
Look what we've become
Welcome to the age of the new evolution

Evolve, evolve, new evolution
Evolve, evolve
Evolve, evolve

Conditioned to fight it, so bring on the riot
'Cause we're all invited to the dance
Raise a glass now for the damned
Terrorize, terrified, prayin' for your fuckin' life
Wide awake, dominate, I figured it out
In a room full of mirrors, there's only one way out

I had to take leave of my senses
To draw my own conclusion
Had to swing for the fences
To find my own solution
In a world gone mad, it's all so sad
Look what we've become
Welcome to the age of the new evolution

Evolve, evolve, evolution
Evolve, evolve, evolution
Evolve, evolve, evolution
Evolve, evolve, evolution
Evolve, evolve, evolution
Evolve, evolve, evolution
Evolve, evolve, evolution
Evolve, evolve

I had to take leave of my senses
To draw my own conclusion
Had to swing for the fences
To find my own solution
In a world gone mad, it's all so sad
Look what we've become
Welcome to the age of the new evolution

Evolve, evolve, new evolution
Evolve, evolve, new evolution
Evolve, evolve
Evolve, evolve
