Trade Yourself In

Deal with me Don't even think about leaving yet I'm not a part of some false regret Even though I believe in fables Come reset A part of life that you'd soon forget And maybe think about who you hurt In the process

I don't think they know that's my heart exposed From the fearing of the endless lies

Trade yourself in for the perfect one No one needs to know that you feel you've been ruined Trade yourself in for diamond eyes Watch the stars collide as you're lifted from your burden

You see me And you know I am not the same Can't pretend to just fake a smile Cause you know I feel every ounce of pain combined

With the loss of a youthful mind You need to look at what you've become And try to figure out where you came from

I don't think they know that's my heart exposed From the fearing of the endless lies

Trade yourself in for the perfect one No one needs to know that you feel you've been ruined Trade yourself in for diamond eyes Watch the stars collide as you're lifted from your burden

I know you can't feel a thing It hurts to feel anymore

Trade yourself in for the perfect one No one needs to know that you feel you've been ruined Trade yourself in for diamond eyes Watch the stars collide as you're lifted from your burden Trade yourself in for the perfect one No one needs to know that you feel you've been ruined Trade yourself in for diamond eyes Watch the stars collide as you're lifted from your burden
