

Dream Girl

SHINee

SHINee's Back

When it started is not important
I only see the perfect you in my eyes
In this gray world, only your red lips shine
The moment I try to kiss your lips
I awake from my dream

Your face is still so clear
The heat of your hand that I held is still warm
You come to me at night but disappear in the morning
I can't just let you go like this every day

Baby I know this is all a dream but
Baby, oh please, don't leave me

Dream Girl, seems like I can touch you but I can't Dream Girl, every night I wait for you like this
Dream Girl, you sweetly whisper love to me
Then you disappear in the morning, dream girl

Hold on for a moment, this isn't a dream
That dazzling smile, that's definitely you
My heart makes me go after you in secret
The moment you turn the corner, you disappear like a dream

Your face in my dream is the same every night
It feels like I should go a little closer to you now
But you only give me a slight smile and disappear like that
I can't just let you go like this every day

Baby I know this is all a dream but
Baby, oh please, don't leave me

Dream Girl, seems like I can touch you but I can't
Dream Girl, every night I wait for you like this
Dream Girl, you sweetly whisper love to me
Then you disappear in the morning, dream girl

I'm afraid of the days without you (although I'll forget when tomorrow comes
)
I try holding onto you earnestly but without any promises, you leave me

The feeling of seeing your eyes, your lips - you're so beautiful
I can't take my eyes off of you for a moment
No words can take anything away from you
From your head to your toes, you're the one and only girl
From one to a hundred, I treat you gently
The day you chose me is when the world stops
You're my world

Dream Girl, seems like I can touch you but I can't
Dream Girl, every night I wait for you like this
Dream Girl, you sweetly whisper love to me
Then you disappear in the morning, dream girl

Dream Girl, seems like I can touch you but I can't

Dream Girl, every night I wait for you like this Dream Girl, remember our love
When the night grows deep, she finds me, dream girl
